Summary

The ADM & IGC RDC Training – I was conducted at the Air Force Station, Tambaram, from 01.10.2025 to 10.10.2025, organized by the 1 TN Battalion NCC, Chennai. Two cadets from Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (MKJC) participated, competing alongside 40 cadets from various NCC units.

After ten days of intensive training, both MKJC cadets were selected for the next level of drill training, which was held at NTA, Idayapatti, Madurai, from 11.10.2025 to 20.11.2025. The camp primarily focused on RDC selection for Delhi, offering participants rigorous sessions in drill, weapon handling, and physical endurance.

During the camp, the 10 TN BN NCC, Vellore, team actively participated in various sports events and secured the Runners-up position, showcasing remarkable sportsmanship and team spirit. Notably, after a gap of seven to eight years, the Chennai 'A' Group proudly won the Overall Runner-up Trophy, marking a significant achievement for the group.

The MKJC cadets demonstrated exceptional discipline, dedication, and teamwork, gaining valuable practical experience that enhanced their confidence and preparedness for higher-level NCC training and leadership responsibilities.

Among the participants, L/CPL Narmadha S (Reg. No. TN23SWA609017, III B.Sc Biotechnology) was selected for the next phase — IGC Training – II, scheduled to be held in Madurai from 01.11.2025 to 30.11.2025.

List of Participating Cadets from MKJC:

S. No	Regimental No	Rank	Name	Department
1	TN23SWA609017	L/CPL	Narmadha S	III B.Sc Biotechnology
2	TN23SWA609027	L/CPL	Srimathi M	III B.Sc Psychology

Outcome of the Programme

1. Cadets gained hands-on experience in drill, weapon handling, firing, map reading, and parade formation, improving their overall readiness for RDC and higher-level NCC selections.
2. The achievement of the Chennai 'A' Group securing the Overall Runner-up Trophy after seven years inspired great pride and motivation among all participating cadets.
3. Participation in sports, cultural, and leadership activities fostered confidence, responsibility, and competitive spirit among cadets.
