Summary

The English Theatrical Club of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women, Autonomous Vaniyambadi, organized and motivated students to take part in the National Essay Writing, Critical Writing and Creative Writing Competition conducted by Amrutham Institute, Chennai on 15th August 2025. The competition aimed at promoting creativity, critical thinking, and responsible authorship among college students across India.

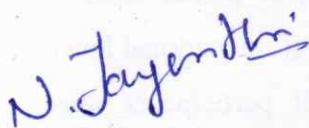

A total of 87 students from our college actively registered and submitted their essays on various themes such as "My Country in 2040: Vision for the Future," "Unity in Diversity: The Cultural Soul of My Country," "The Role of Youth in Nation-Building," and "My Country on the Global Stage: Challenges and Opportunities." Out of the 87 participants, 13 students achieved First, Second, and Third places in different categories at the national level, showcasing their exceptional writing skills and creative insight. All participants were awarded Certificates and Gold Medals, while the winners received Special Prizes and Recognition Shields.
