PG DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY ORGANIZED EXTENSION ACTIVITY

ON 11.04.2023

REPORT

On 11th April, 2023, One Day Extension Activity was organized at IELC MANNS School for the Mentally Challenged and IELC School for the Blind, by The Department of Psychology of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women, Vaniyambadi. The students from III B.Sc Psychology of 15 students were taken along with the staffs of the Department of Psychology via the college bus.

Mr. J. Eliah Charles, Head Master, IELC MANNS School for the Mentally challenged, Bargur felicitated and welcomed the students. The students of MKJC were enthusiastic to meet and interact with the students of IELC. The students observed the teaching methods followed by that school to felicitate the special students according to their needs. Mr. J. Eliah Charles showed the students around the campus and spoke on the methodologies, teaching aids, activities followed by his institution and he stressed on how the staffs at IELC handle the needs of the students with a calm and composed persona, which inspired the psychology students to pursue training in the said field. The students of MKJC interacted with the students of IELC MANNS School for the Mentally challenged and gave them chocolates as a parting gift and bid adieu.

The students were then taken to IELC School for the Blind, Bargur. They were felicitated by Dr. P. Lawrence Inbaraj, Correspondent, and Mr. J.D.P. Ezhilvarman, Head Master, IELC School for the Blind, Bargur. Mr. J.D.P. Ezhilvarman showed the students around the campus and spoke on the methodologies, teaching aids, activities followed by his institution and he stressed on how some of the staffs are visually impaired but prove to be the best at IELC and how they teach Braille from a young age. The students of MKJC interacted with the students of IELC School for the Blind and gave them chocolates as a parting gift and bid farewell. The extension activity ended on a good note and was a productive one.
