Summary

International Yoga Day was organized by the Department of Physical Education, NSS, NCC & YRC. In Association with Tirupattur Manavala Kalai Trust & Mera Yuva Bharat, Vellore. The programme began with a prayer, creating a calm and peaceful atmosphere. A warm welcome was extended by Ms. K. Muskan of III B.Com, who greeted the dignitaries and audience with enthusiasm.

Dr. M. Inbavalli, Principal, delivered the Felicitation Address, highlighting the importance of yoga for a balanced and healthy life. Guest introductions were presented by Ms. Khizra Kownain of III B.Sc. Biotechnology, who acknowledged each guest's contributions and achievements. Guests were then honored by the College President Sri.V.Dilip Kumar Jain, in a respectful and cordial manner. Mrs. Arulnidhi Sarala, Assistant Professor and Trainee from Tirupattur Manavala Kalai Trust, delivered the first Chief Guest Address. She spoke about the spiritual and physical benefits of practicing yoga regularly. She also taught some sitting asanas, such as Sukhasana, Padmasana, and Vajrasana, for the benefit of the students.

Ms. B.L. Gayathri, Junior Executive Officer at Axis Bank, Bangalore, delivered the third Chief Guest Address, encouraging students to maintain mindfulness and inner peace through daily yoga. She shared her personal experience, explaining that she developed an interest in yoga during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Yoga and meditation activities followed the speeches, where all participants actively took part in asanas and breathing techniques. Gratitude was expressed by Ms. Zunera Fathima of III B.Sc. Biotechnology through the Vote of Thanks, appreciating everyone involved in the successful conduct of the event. The programme concluded with the National Anthem, instilling a sense of pride and unity among all attendees.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Increased awareness among students about the significance of yoga for a healthy lifestyle.
2. Improved participation in physical wellness programs and yoga sessions.
3. Enhanced concentration and mental clarity among attendees through meditation.
