Summary

The National Service Scheme (NSS) and Go Green Association of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women jointly celebrated "Environmental Day" on June 5, 2025. The event was presided over by Chairman V. Dilip Kumar Jain, Secretary Anand Singvi, and Principal Dr. M. Inbavalli delivered the welcome address. During the programme, the Principal and students planted saplings both on the college grounds and along the adjacent National Highway. The Principal emphasized the importance of environmental protection, conservation, and sustainability, highlighting the significance of water conservation, the benefits of trees, and the need to prevent pollution. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by N. Vijayalakshmi, Coordinator of the Go Green Association, following an informative session on the consequences of environmental degradation and the significance of preserving a clean, green environment.

Outcome of the Program

1. The outcome of the programme was the successful promotion of environmental consciousness and sustainability through sapling plantation, student engagement, and awareness on conservation and pollution prevention.
2. Increased awareness about climate change.
