Summary

Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women celebrated "International Biodiversity Day" on May 22, 2025, in collaboration with the college's Go Green Association, Tamil Nadu Forest Department, Bhoomi Trust, and Vergal Trust. The event was presided over by Chairman V. Dilip Kumar Jain, and Secretary Anand Singvi, with Principal Dr. M. Inbavalli, delivered the welcome address. The chief guests, Mr. M. Mahendran, Indian Forest Officer, and Mr. K. R. Cholarajan, Forest Range Officer, Tirupattur District, emphasized the importance of preserving biodiversity and protecting the environment. Mr. M. Mahendran urged the audience to take a pledge to protect the earth and its resources, while Mr. D. Gnanasuria Bahavan, Founder of Bhoomi Trust, highlighted the benefits of trees and the importance of water conservation. Mr. Vadivel Subramaniyan, Founder of Vergal Trust, appreciated the college's Go Green Association initiatives and encouraged students to continue their efforts. The event concluded with a tree plantation drive led by Dr. M. Inbavalli, and a vote of thanks by Mrs. N. Vijayalakshmi, Coordinator of the Go Green Association. The program was attended by forest officials, faculty members, and students, and ended with the National Anthem.

Outcome of the Program

1. Enhanced Environmental Awareness Insightful speeches by chief guests helped deepen understanding of biodiversity conservation among attendees.
2. A collective pledge was taken by the audience, reinforcing their commitment to preserving the planet and its natural resources.
