DAY 1

Date: December 16, 2024

Venue: Mandalavadi

The NSS Units of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi, in association with Oru Vithaien Kural (NGO), successfully inaugurated the NSS Special Camp on December 16, 2024, at Mandalavadi and Kunnathur villages.

The inauguration ceremony was graced by several dignitaries including our esteemed President Sri V. Dilip Kumar Jain, Honorable Principal Dr. M. Inbavalli, Ms. C. B. Sumathi, Director of Student Affairs, MKJC, Mr. Arulmozhivarman, Senior Revenue Inspector, Mr. Vadivel Subramaniam, Founder of Vergal Arakattalai, Mr. Mahendiran, President of Mandalavadi and Kunnathur, Mr. K. G. Saravanan, Councilor of Mandalavadi, and Mr. Sirangeevi, Secretary of Oru Vithaien Kural (NGO).

The dignitaries addressed the gathering, highlighting the value of community service and the vital role of youth in nation-building. The inaugural day featured a range of community-oriented activities centered on social welfare and environmental sustainability.

A tree plantation drive marked the beginning of the day's activities, with NSS volunteers enthusiastically participating in planting saplings to foster ecological balance. Following this, the volunteers undertook a cleanliness drive at the Panchayat office, contributing to a more hygienic and organized administrative environment. Efforts were also extended to clean nearby public spaces, thereby promoting sanitation and enhancing the overall well-being of the local residents.

The first day of the NSS Special Camp concluded with remarkable participation from both students and the local community, laying a strong foundation for the week-long initiative dedicated to rural development and social upliftment.

Day 2

Date: December 17, 2024

Venue: Mandalavadi

The second day of the NSS Special Camp, organized by the NSS Units of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi, in association with Oru Vithaien Kural (NGO), took place on December 17, 2024, and featured a range of impactful, community-focused activities.

The day's programme was graced by the Chief Guest, Dr. Vaddiyappan, Block Medical Officer of Pudupattai. He delivered an insightful awareness speech on health and hygiene, emphasizing the importance of cleanliness, preventive healthcare, and the adoption of healthy living practices among the villagers.

A free medical camp was also organized, offering basic health check-ups and medical consultations. The initiative witnessed an overwhelming response, with nearly 230 villagers availing themselves of the services provided.

In addition to the healthcare activities, a park cleaning drive was conducted by NSS volunteers. This initiative aimed to promote environmental cleanliness and enhance public hygiene, contributing to the overall well-being and aesthetic of community spaces.

The second day of the camp successfully reinforced the values of health, hygiene, and environmental responsibility, further strengthening the bond between the college volunteers and the local community.

Day 3

Date: December 18, 2024

Venue: Mandalavadi

The third day of the NSS Special Camp, organized by the NSS Units of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi, in collaboration with Oru Vithaien Kural (NGO), was held on December 18, 2024, and focused on meaningful community service and awareness-building initiatives.

The event was honored by the presence of esteemed Chief Guests: Ms. B. Sakthimala, Chief Administrative Officer of MKJC; Dr. Srinivasan, Deputy Controller of Examinations of MKJC; Ms. R. Malarkodi, Head and Assistant Professor of the Department of Biochemistry. Ms. Sakthimala and Dr. Srinivasan delivered an inspiring address on the pivotal role of youth in rural development. They emphasized the potential of young individuals to transform rural communities through education, entrepreneurship, skill development, and proactive engagement in local governance. Their message underscored the importance of leadership, innovation, and social responsibility in overcoming rural challenges and achieving sustainable progress. Their motivating words energized the volunteers and strengthened their commitment to community service.

As part of the day's activities, NSS volunteers engaged in the cleaning of the village temple and nearby lake, contributing to the preservation and sanctity of local public spaces. They also cleaned the village library, enhancing the learning environment for the benefit of the local community.

In addition, a door-to-door survey was conducted focusing on student dropout rates and awareness of Polycystic Ovarian Disease (PCOD). This initiative aimed to collect vital data to support efforts in reducing educational discontinuity and promoting women's health awareness.

The third day of the camp was both inspiring and impactful, reflecting the dedication of the volunteers toward holistic rural development and community welfare.

DAY 4

Date: December 19, 2024

Venue: Mandalavadi

The fourth day of the NSS Special Camp, organized by the NSS Units of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi, in association with Oru Vithaien Kural (NGO), was held on December 19, 2024. The day was marked by a range of impactful environmental and health-focused initiatives.

The event was graced by distinguished Chief Guests: Mr. C. Tholkappian, Divisional Environmental Engineer; Mr. S. Elayaraja and Mr. G. S. Karthik Sangameethran, Assistant Engineers from the Tamil Nadu Pollution Control Board; Ms. Vijayalakshmi, Head and Assistant Professor of the Department of Interior Design and Décor at MKJC; Mr. Vadivel Subramaniam, Founder of Vergal Arakattalai; and Mr. Sirangeevi, Secretary of Oru Vithaien Kural.

The day commenced with the "Meendum Manppai" awareness rally, which aimed to promote environmental consciousness and responsible waste management practices among the villagers. The rally was well-received and served as an effective medium for spreading the message of sustainability.

Following the rally, a cleanliness awareness session was conducted for local school students. The session emphasized the importance of personal hygiene and maintaining a clean environment, helping to instill responsible habits from a young age.

In continuation of the day's theme, a community session on health and hygiene was also organized. This session aimed to educate the general public about personal care, environmental sanitation, and preventive health measures, thereby reinforcing the camp's ongoing commitment to public health and community well-being.

The fourth day of the NSS Special Camp was both educational and inspiring, further strengthening the volunteers' mission to promote sustainable development and social responsibility.
