Summary

Ms. S. Anusiya, a first-year B.Com student, was proudly selected to participate in the NSS Youth Festival – 2025, which was held at VIT, Chennai, from 13th March 2025 to 17th March 2025. She represented Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women (Autonomous), Vaniyambadi, affiliated with Thiruvalluvar University.

The NSS Youth Festival is a prestigious national event that brings together NSS volunteers from various colleges across the Tamil nadu. Throughout the festival, several activities were conducted, including leadership training programs, cultural performances, debate competitions, social awareness campaigns, workshops on community development, and exhibitions promoting youth engagement in nation-building.

Ms. Anusiya's participation highlights her commitment to community service, leadership excellence, and her active involvement in NSS activities. Her selection reflects not only her personal dedication but also the strong tradition of social responsibility upheld by Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women.

The College President, Sri. V. Dilip Kumar Jain, Secretary Sri. AnandSinghvi, and Principal Dr. M. Inbavalli extended their heartfelt congratulations to the student for their commendable involvement and spirited performance at the camp.

Outcome of the Programme

- Developed leadership, communication, and organizational skills among participants.
- Enhanced awareness about social issues and the importance of community service.
- Strengthened the spirit of teamwork, cooperation, and cultural understanding among students.
