Summary

As part of the Book Exhibition held at the Old Bus Stand in Tirupattur on 28th March 2025, the NSS Volunteers from Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women actively participated in a significant public awareness initiative.

The students conducted a Public Awareness Program aimed at highlighting the critical issue of sexual abuse and promoting education and sensitivity within the community. A key highlight of the program was a powerful and thought-provoking dance performance by the students, which artistically depicted the issue of women's harassment.

The performance was not only emotionally moving but also served as a call for awareness, empathy, and collective responsibility towards creating a safer society for women. Dr.M.Inbavalli, the esteemed Principal of the college, extended her heartfelt appreciation to the students for their outstanding contribution and impactful presentation, acknowledging the importance of such initiatives in shaping a socially responsible generation.

The event witnessed an overwhelming response, with nearly 500 people attending and engaging with the awareness program. The involvement of the students in both the cultural and social aspects of the exhibition added great value to the event. This initiative stands as a testament to the commitment of Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women and its students in addressing social issues and promoting community engagement through meaningful action.

.Outcome of the Programme

1. Students effectively highlighted the issue of women's harassment through a meaningful dance performance.
2. Around 500 members of the public were sensitized and engaged in the awareness program.
3. The event enhanced students' skills in leadership, communication, and teamwork.
