Summary

Lt Dr M Charumathy, ANO & Assistant Professor, successfully completed the PRCN (Para Regimental Course for NCC Officers) Course conducted at Gwalior, Madhya Pradesh, from 07.07.2025 to 19.09.2025. The intensive 75-day course provided comprehensive training designed to enhance the skills, knowledge, and leadership capabilities of NCC officers.

1. Leadership & Management: Developed strategic planning, team coordination, decision-making skills, and the ability to guide cadets effectively.
2. Drill & Parade Procedures: Mastered precision in parades, ceremonial drills, and execution of NCC protocols to ensure cadets perform with discipline and uniformity.
3. Rules and Regulations of NCC: Acquired in-depth knowledge of NCC policies, regulations, and administrative procedures for proper governance and compliance.
4. Selection and Evaluation of Cadets: Learned to assess cadets' physical fitness, leadership qualities, discipline, and performance to identify and nurture potential leaders.

5. Physical Fitness, Discipline, and Motivational Training: Enhanced personal fitness while learning methods to instil resilience, discipline, and motivation in cadets, preparing them for competitive NCC events and higher-level training.
6. Final Examination: Successfully passed the course with Alpha Grade, reflecting outstanding performance, dedication, and mastery of the training content.

Following the completion of this rigorous course, an Honouring Programme was organized on 25.09.2025 at the Sri Arihanth Seminar Hall, Vaniyambadi, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The event was attended by 75 students and faculty members, reflecting the institution's appreciation for her dedication and achievements.

During the programme, Lt Dr M Charumathy shared her experiences, highlighting the challenges, learnings, and key takeaways from the PRCN course. She provided insights into NCC rules, training methodologies, selection criteria, and leadership principles, offering practical guidance that inspired cadets to cultivate discipline, commitment, and excellence in their own NCC journey.

The Honoring Programme not only celebrated her personal achievement but also served as an inspirational platform for cadets, motivating them to actively participate in NCC activities, embrace leadership roles, and uphold the core values of the National Cadet Corps, including patriotism, responsibility, and integrity.

Benefits to NCC Students

1. Cadets gained first-hand exposure to advanced NCC training methodologies and leadership practices.
2. Inspired by the ANO's achievement, students understood the importance of discipline, commitment, and professional development.
3. Cadets received guidance on drill, parade, and physical fitness techniques.
4. Motivation to participate actively in NCC camps, competitions, and national-level training.
5. Development of leadership, teamwork, and patriotic values among students.

Outcome of the Programme

1. Recognition and celebration of ANO's successful completion of PRCN Course.
2. Enhanced awareness among students about NCC rules, training, and leadership.
3. Cadets were inspired to maintain discipline, commitment, and excellence in NCC activities.
4. Strengthened mentor-cadet relationship fostering leadership, responsibility, and patriotism.
