Summary

The Orientation Program on Competitive Exams, spearheaded by the Placement & Career Guidance Cell, commenced on 10.06.2025 at 11:15 a.m. in the Sri Roop Rajat Seminar Hall. The event aimed to equip students with the competencies needed for competitive exams. Following the orientation kickoff, an extensive training series was conducted from 10.06.2025 to 21.06.2025 in the Sri Roop Rajat Seminar Hall. designed to span over nearly two weeks of structured engagement.

The programme opened with an encouraging welcome address from Ms. N. Nimra Irtheza, III B.Sc. Computer Science. Following the welcome, Principal Dr. M. Inbavalli, delivered a thought-provoking felicitation address, emphasizing the growing significance of competitive examinations in the evolving employment landscape. She encouraged students to view these exams as gateways to stable and prestigious careers in the government and public sector, also highlighted how competitive exams like UPSC, TNPSC, SSC, have become essential stepping stones for individuals aspiring to make impactful contributions to society. She urged students to begin their preparation early and consistently, stressing that success in these exams requires dedication, discipline, and a well-structured plan.

The core of the session was facilitated by Dr. H. Lookman Sithic, Director of the Skill Development Centre at MKJC, who served as the resource person. Known for his expertise in skill-building and career development, delivered an in-depth and engaging presentation on several key areas: UPSC, TNPSC, SSC, IBPS, RRB NTPC, EY, KMPG, WIPRO, CAPGEMINI, INFOSYS etc.,

The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Ms. T. Nafiya, III B.Sc. Computer Science, and concluded on an inspiring note with the National Anthem.

Outcome of the Program

1. Students gained clear understanding of state, national, and public-sector exams such as UPSC, TNPSC, SSC, IBPS, RRB, WIPRO including their structure, eligibility, and target career paths.
2. A total of 656 participants received a clear roadmap on how to begin preparation, what resources to use, and how to track their progress and the orientation inspired many students to enrol in follow-up coaching sessions.
3. Students gained motivation and confidence to attempt competitive exams strategically.
