Summary

The One Day National Level Seminar on Disability Studies was organized by the PG & Research Department of English at Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women Vaniyambadi, on 14th December 2024.

The Seminar was opened with the beautiful prayer song followed by Tamilthai Vazhthu. Dr. N. Hemamalini, Head Department of English, gave the Welcome Address and Dr. C. Deepa, Assistant Professor gave the Chief guest Introduction and Principal Dr. M. Inbavalli was honoured the Chief guest with Shawl.

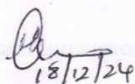

Prof. Mahanta delivered an engaging session that emphasized the representation of disability in literature, challenges in societal perception, and the importance of inclusive education. It provided an academic platform for intellectual exchange, enabling participants to gain a deeper understanding of inclusivity and societal challenges faced by individuals with disabilities. The Seminar was conducted in a Hybrid mode, with participants attending both in person and virtually.

The session witnessed active participation from students, faculty, and researchers, culminating in an engaging with interactions. The seminar was concluded with vote of thanks delivered by Dr. N. Jayanthi, Assistant Professor, Department of English followed by National Anthem.

Outcome of the Programme

1. The participants gained enhanced awareness of disability Studies as a critical field.
2. The participants generated recommendations for disability – inclusive policies and practices
3. The participants highlighted the importance of universal design and accessibility in education, infrastructure, and technology.
