ABOUT IQAC

The Internal Quality Assurance Cell(IQAC) of MKJC was constituted in the year 2006. The IQAC has been an integral part of the MKJC which works towards the goals of quality sustenance, quality maintenance and quality enhancement by developing a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic improvement in different aspects of functioning of the college. Through all these measures, IQAC happens to be one of the most important components of the college which ensures quality and continuous improvement in all the activities of the college.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

NAAC possesses vital quality parameters which can lead any Higher Education Institute to the path of success irrespective of its background and geographical location. In the Revised Accreditation Framework (RAF), the main focus has been placed to enhance the redeeming features of the accreditation process and make them more robust, objective, transparent and ICT enabled. The revised A&A framework includes many new concepts like Institutional Information for Quality Assessment (IIQA) and Self Study Report (SSR), Data Validation and Verification (DVV) and Pre-qualifier Score and the Grading Pattern – Introduction of Grade Qualifiers etc. Hence this revised framework has put forward many new opportunities and challenges before every HEIs. This workshop will be an attempt to present opportunities and challenges in the direction of quality improvement and sustenance in higher education as per the new framework of NAAC.

EXPECTED OUTCOME:

This workshop aims to create a holistic platform for Experts, Researchers, Educationalists, Principals and IQAC Coordinators to understand the role of new guidelines of NAAC in quality assessment, enhancement and sustenance in higher education and to share their experiences in the process of delivering quality higher education.

The Management and the Trustees of Marudhar Kesari Jain College thanked the resource persons of the day for uplifting the knowledge of the participants about the Accreditation process of NAAC. He appealed to the entire faculty, non-teaching staff, students and other stakeholders to work together to highlight the Colleges' excellent aspects to continually development.

Prof. R.Vijayaragavan, Registrar, Thiruvalluvar University, Serkkadu, Vellore, initiated his speech on Assessment and Accreditation Methodology of NAAC. He carefully outlined all the requirements and the different tasks that had to be completed to meet each requirement. He explained how the IQAC operates and gave instructions on the steps that should be followed by the IQAC to increase the level of higher education in terms of teaching, research and learning at HEIs. He said that HEIs should be creative in creating curriculum and instruction that meets the requirements of their students. He emphasized the necessity to use both conventional teaching strategies and digital initiatives to increase the quality of education in HEIs to acceptable global standards.

Dr.Fr.S.J.Ignacimuthu, Director, St.Xavier's College (Autonomous), Palayamkottai, Former Vice Chancellor of Bharathiar University, Coimbatore & University of Madras, Chennai. Began his session on the topic "HEIs Demarche in NAAC Assessment & Accreditation Framework" (Criteria III). He emphasized the fundamental principles of documentation, patents, data sheets required to support as proof, policy to promote research, mentoring, research mobilization, and publications with rewards for research. Additionally, he discussed institutional facilities, institutional social duties, and institutional functional MOUs. In addition, he responded to the participant's query. He described the idea behind Criteria III, the relevant paperwork that must be submitted.

Next, Dr. Syed Wajeed, Associate Professor & Director – IQAC, St.Joseph's College (Autonomous), Bengaluru gave his wonderful linguistic communication on "HEIs Demarche in NAAC Assessment & Accreditation Framework" (Criteria I &IV). He gave an overview of the seven criteria to everyone. He kept things interesting and made the class very involved. He provided information on Curriculum Aspects and Infrastructure and Learning resources. He explained about the events database to be maintained and he proclaimed to make the students as content assimilators.

He briefed about Infrastructure and Learning Resources. He discussed infrastructure fragmentation, the best way to use the facilities, student and staff learning engagement, ICT requirements, and the average proportion of spending. Finally, he explained about partial automation of the library using an ILMS, a subscription to an e-resource as a learning resource, and library usage. Additionally, he saw the IT infrastructure, regular changes to institutions in accordance with HEIs and the elements that go into it. He concludes his presentation by clearing up Criteria I & IV queries from participants.

Followed by Dr.G.Tholkappia Arasu,Vice President, Aasaan Educare Foundation, Charter President, Rotary Club of Global Scholars-RID2982,Chennai.showed up his insights on "HEIs Demarche in NAAC Assessment & Accreditation Framework" (Criteria II). He provided specifics on the student enrolment profile, teacher profile and quality, student performance, course outcomes, along with a survey of student happiness Along with metrics and scores for each criterion; he also described the NAAC DVV procedure. He thus responded to each of the questions posed in relation to Criteria II. Thus, he successfully completed his session.

Day 2 started up with Dr.B.Vanitha, Secretary, KG College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore and Former Register, Bharathiyar University, Coimbatore. She extended her speech on the topic "HEIs Demarche in NAAC Assessment & Accreditation Framework" (Criteria V). The student support and progression, placement and alumni engagement were all properly outlined by her. She emphasized the value of students' support of alumni and their participation in the institution's growth. She insisted that all necessary data be submitted and represented truthfully to support the claim made by HEIs. She provided examples of how organizations should set up alumni associations and examine the contributions that alumni have made to the institution. She spoke on the significance of the student comments for NAAC accreditation. She later clarified the responses to the attendees' questions.

Finally Dr.J.Aloysius Edward, Dean, Faculty of Commerce and Management & Director - IQAC, Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous) Bengaluru, explained about "HEIs Demarche in NAAC Assessment & Accreditation Framework" (Criteria VI and VII). In addition to Institutional Values & Best Practices, he spoke about Governance, Leadership, and Management. He spoke about the institutional principles and the leadership qualities that should be instilled in students. In order to empower the students' community and promote social advancement, he also discussed the finest practices recommended by the college.

Dr.B.S.Ponmudiraj, Advisor (NAAC), Bengaluru delivered valedictory address. He highlighted about the core values, vision and mission and how NAAC facilitates the HEI to climb the quality ladder. He encouraged institutions should come forward to organize seminars/workshop about NAAC Accreditation and Assessment and he said institution can avail financial or non financial assistance from NAAC. He also answered to the question which was asked by the participants. He made the session interesting making the session very interactive.

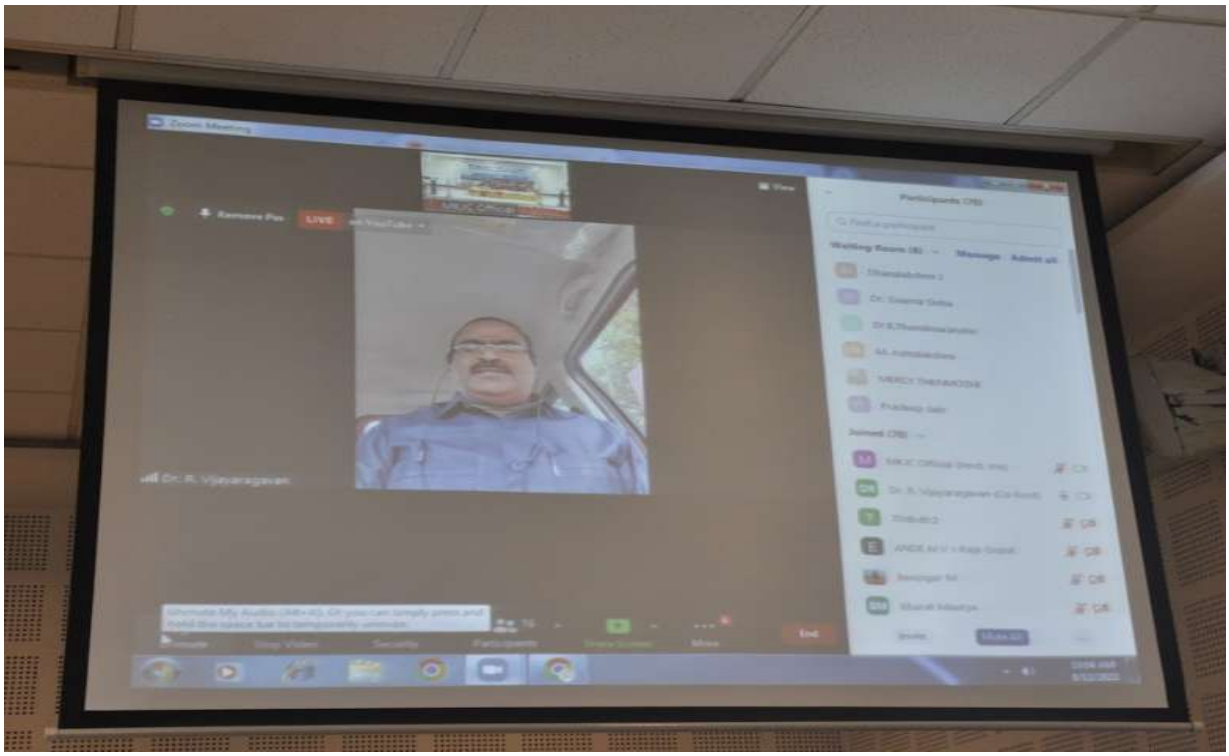

The participants provided feedback on the workshop following the conclusion of the workshop session. The attendees received clear explanations for the questions they had about the session. In recognition of their participation in the session, the participants received participation certificates.

Vote of thanks was then given by Mrs. M. Ashtalakshmi, IQAC Coordinator and Head of the Department of Commerce (CA), Marudhar Kesari Jain College for Women. She also complimented the administration of the Marudhar Kesari Jain Trust for their encouragement and cooperation in organizing the workshop. She expressed her sincere gratitude to the NAAC team for their great encouragement and assistance. She also expressed her gratitude to the IQAC team, all the Criterion Heads and the Heads of the various Departments for their support to make the programme a grand success.
