TAMIL NADU PROHIBITION OF RAGGING ACT-1997

The Following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly Received the Assent of The Governor on the 14th February 1997 and is hereby published for General Information.

Excepts form Act No.7 of 1997

An Act to prohibit ragging in educational institutions in the State of Tamil Nadu. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of State of Tamil Nadu in the Forty Eighth year of Republic India follows:

Preamble

The Act received the Governor's assent on February 14, 1997, and is published for general information.

Act No.7 of 1997: This is the official designation of the Act.

1) Short Title, Extent and Commencement:

- The Act is called the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997.
- The Act applies to the entire state of Tamil Nadu.
- The Act is deemed to have come in to force on December 19, 1996.

2) Definition:

Ragging is a form of harassment, intimidation, typically inflicted on junior students by their seniors, in educational institutions. It can take many forms, including:

- a) Verbal abuse or taunting, Physical assault or violence, Forced activities or tasks, Humiliation or degradation, Sexual harassment or abuse.
- b) Emotional trauma and stress, Physical harm or injury, Loss of self-esteem and confidence, Dropout from institution, even suicide in extreme cases

3) Prohibition of Ragging

Ragging with or without any educational institutions is strictly prohibited.

4) Penalty for Ragging

As per the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1997, the penalty for ragging includes:

1. Imprisonment: Up to 2 years
2. Fine: Up to ₹10,000
3. Suspension or Expulsion: From the institution
4. Cancellation of Degree: If the student is found guilty of ragging
5. Withholding of Degree: If the student is found guilty of ragging
6. Debarring from Admission: To any other institution for a specified period
7. Forfeiture of Scholarship or Stipend: If the student is found guilty of ragging
8. Withholding of Results: If the student is found guilty of ragging

5) Dismissal of Students

Permanent Expulsion, Cancellation of Degree or Diploma, and Debarring from Admission are severe consequences that can be imposed on students found guilty of ragging. Permanent Expulsion means that the student is expelled from the institution permanently, forfeiting their right to continue their education there. Cancellation of Degree means that the student's earned degree is cancelled, rendering it invalid. Debarring from Admission means that the student is barred from seeking admission to any other institution, effectively ending their academic pursuits. These consequences aim to deter students from engaging in ragging and ensure a safe and conducive learning environment for all.

6) Suspension of Students

A student found guilty of ragging may face temporary disciplinary actions, including Temporary Suspension, Rustication, and Withholding of Results. Temporary Suspension involves suspending the student for a specified period, allowing them to resume their studies after the period ends. Rustication is a similar measure, where the student is suspended and allowed to rejoin the institution after a specified period. Withholding of Results is another consequence, where the student's results are withheld until the suspension period ends, ensuring that they cannot progress in their studies until the matter is resolved. These measures aim to penalize the student while also providing an opportunity for them to reflect on their actions and reform.

7) Deemed Abetment

If the Head of the educational institution or the person responsible for management fails or neglects to take action in the manner specified in sub-section (1) of section 6 when a complaint of ragging is made, they shall be deemed to have abetted the offence of ragging. Consequently, such person shall be punished as provided for in section 4, which includes imprisonment for up to two years, a fine of up to ₹10,000, and other penalties. This provision emphasizes the responsibility of institutional authorities to take prompt and effective action against ragging, and holds them accountable for any lapses in this regard.

As per G.O., any student found guilty of ragging and or a betting ragging shall be expelled from the institution.
