Summary

The session commenced with an introductory note highlighting the importance of professionalism and effective communication in the teaching profession. The programme was designed to provide a platform for faculty members to refine their communication abilities, improve interpersonal skills, and adopt a professional attitude that aligns with the vision and mission of the institution.

The training sessions were handled by eminent resource persons from the institution — Dr. Merlin Mythili Nelson, Director of the Teacher Learning Center, MKJC(A), Ms. P. Priyadharshini, Department of English, and Ms. P. Shakeela Begum, English Communication Trainer, MKJC(A), Vaniyambadi. Each trainer contributed their expertise to different aspects of professional and communication development.

Dr. Merlin Mythili Nelson emphasized the importance of maintaining professionalism in academic and administrative responsibilities. Her session encouraged teachers to become role models by practicing continuous learning and personal growth.

Ms. P. Priyadharshini conducted sessions on communication strategies that help teachers engage effectively with students and colleagues. She elaborated on the significance of verbal and non-verbal communication, active listening, and empathy in classroom interactions. Her sessions were interactive and encouraged participants to reflect on their communication styles and make necessary improvements.

Ms. P. Shakeela Begum focused on enhancing English communication skills among faculty members. She conducted practical activities, including pronunciation drills, group discussions, and short presentations, which helped participants, build confidence in professional communication. Her training enabled teachers to express ideas more clearly and effectively in academic and administrative settings.

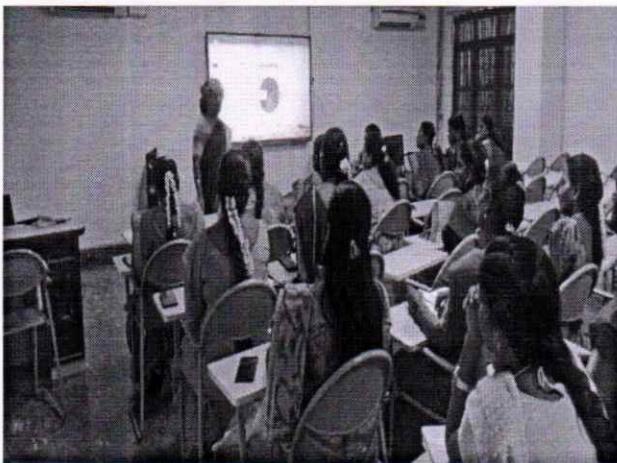

The sessions provided valuable insights into balancing professionalism with effective communication to create a positive teaching-learning environment. The training also highlighted the role of communication in fostering collaboration, leadership, and institutional growth.

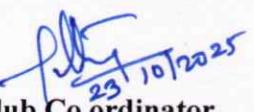

The Training Programme on “Building Professionalism and Communication for Excellence” proved to be a remarkable initiative by the IQAC and FDC. It successfully met its objectives of empowering teachers to enhance their professional standards and communication effectiveness. The event concluded with an expression of gratitude to the Management, Principal, IQAC Director, and FDC Coordinator for their constant support and guidance in organizing this enriching and impactful programme.

Outcome of the Programme

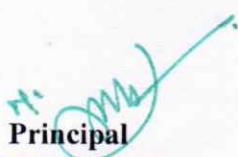

1. Faculty members gained insights into professional behaviour and effective communication strategies.
2. Participants became more confident in expressing ideas and managing classroom dynamics.
3. The programme contributed to creating a positive and collaborative learning atmosphere among faculty members.
4. It enhanced the overall teaching quality and institutional performance parameters.
